first exploited, I think, by that greatest of all English combinations, Aston Villa, and so ably illustrated to us by the recent visiting Fleet team, is, in my opinion, of the utmost importance in getting the best results from any forward line. The wing half-backs should collaborate with their inside and wing forwards in an attack, and always be just behind their front pair ready to receive a back pass, thus making an additional forward as the occasion demands. Remember attack is the best defence. The oftener your forwards are kept on the attack the fewer opportunities your opponents will have.

Skying the Ball a Great Fault

A common fault with most of our players is "skying" or "ballooning" the ball. This is caused by players not kicking the ball correctly. Learn to shoot with the instep and not the toe of the boot. By using the toe you invariably raise the ball. Also use the side of the boot when passing the ball; you will find you have far more control in placing a ball correctly than with the toe, and what is all important you will be able to keep the ball on the ground. A pass along the turn a man can gather in his stride, but when, as so often happens, the ball comes to him from the clouds it takes time for him to get the ball under control, and while he is waiting to do this his opponent has time to get into position to take the ball also.

(To be Continued.)

The Council meeting of the Metropolitan Association, due to take place next Monday night, at the Sports Club, has been postponed till the following Monday, May 12th.

All Councillors are requested to take this as the official intimation.

The action is taken on account of the fact that the Commonwealth Association has arranged the official reception to the Canadians for Monday, May 5th.

CANTERBURY CLUB.

The Canterbury Club announce that they are badly in need of an outside left, and will welcome a new member to the club meeting to try out in this position.

Anybody interested is asked to write to R. H. Midgely, 493 Kent Street, Sydney.

THE FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION

The following minutes of the English Football Association make interesting reading:—Law 6. Offside: The Committee having communicated with a referee continually stopping play and ordering free kicks, when players although in offside positions, were not interfering with an opponent or with the play, decided that the attention of referees be again called to the following decision of the Council:—

"Play should not be stopped and a player given off-side under Law 6 because a player is in an off-side position. A breach of the Law is only committed when a player who is in an off-side position interferes with an opponent, or with the play."

A letter was considered from Durham F.A., requesting a decision upon the following:—Who does the jurisdiction of a referee over the players actually commence?

The committee expressed the opinion as follows:—A referee has power to deal direct with a player for any breach of the law of the game after he has signalled for the play to commence, while the game is in progress, during any temporary suspension of the play, or when the ball is out of play. Misconduct by a player prior to, or after a game, or during the half-time interval, must be reported by the referee.

INJURIES AND TREATMENT.

By T. A. Langridge.

Nothing could have been more auspicious, more promising for the future than the opening of the 1924 Soccer season. With weather that no reasonable sportsman could grumble at, there is also the extremely gratifying feature of large attendances at the grounds, and an indubitably cres-ball prospects generally, and our conversation swung round to the question of the treatment of injuries; sprains, displaced cartilages, bruises, and the like; which one might say are inseparable from a fast game. The doctor was referring to the latest ideas in physio-therapy, and to the excellent results which accrue from manipulation by massage, hot air and hot water processes provided that the injured player loses no time in starting the treatment.

sprain or injury has every chance of complete recovery in a remarkably short time; but obviously greater the delay in starting the treatment, the longer will be the period before practical relief is achieved. It is now a well-known axiom of war-time surgery that if the minor injuries of the men are promptly and scientifically dealt with as close as possible to the base of operations, there is not half the wastage; and a far greater number of effectives can therefore always be kept in the field. So it is with footballers; and it is the "stitch in time" which enables a club always to have the full quota of trained and sound players ready, as the saying goes, to go anywhere and do anything. The little bruise or the apparently insignificant graze from a kick, if looked after early, may be just one of those unconsidered trifles, that after very little, but if these things are neglected or ignored, they may just as easily cause prolonged disablement.

Another Advance.

To-day's game marks another big advance of the Soccer Code not only in this State, but throughout the Commonwealth.

The rapidity with which our game has forged ahead during the past two or three years is astounding. Who, a few seasons ago would have dreamed that teams from New Zealand, Canada and China would visit these shores. Three International visits in a period of less than twelve months! This in itself is an achievement of which the code has every reason to be proud, for it has never been excelled by any other sporting organisation.

That the present rate of progress will be maintained is the sincere wish of every Soccer enthusiast. Provided our standard of play continues to improve, we need have no fear on this point. What a great incentive it would be to players if the authorities decided to send a team overseas. Irrespective of the actual number of matches won or lost, the experience gained by the members of such a combination would be of inestimable value in the future.

LETTERS HOME.

Hotel Sydney,
Sydney, May 10th.
Dear Jane,—

Arrived in Sydney last Sunday; not a bad little town either, water-frontage to what is called "Our Arbour." The people here don't like you not to mention this stretch of water; once you do though you are able to do anything with them. In Melbourne I believe its the other way about; they have a little stream called the Yarra, and—well, you have not to mention that; in fact, if you're truly well-bred you don't notice it at all. But its hard, as it forces itself on one, so to speak. In Sydney you have to keep to the left while walking, so they tell me, but I haven't noticed it yet. The streets are narrow, but the Sydneyites get annoyed if you mention it; in Pitt Street, if you allow your elbow to protrude beyond the window of the tram you are likely to cause serious damage to the noses of those waiting on the edge of the pavement. We have been welcomed by his Worship the Mayor up at the Town Hall, and on Tuesday night we were the guests of the management of Her Majesty's Theatre. We are to have some launch trips on "Our Arbour" during the next few days; so far we have not seen any convicts or blacks about.

Sydney has had a great deal of excitement lately. There have been four murders, the visit of the Fleet, and now us, but the people appear normal enough. We are to play our first match to-day, and when they see us in action, especially Mosher in his little padded pants, we expect little old Sydney to be surprised. More next mail.

Yours,

BILL.

THE ILLAWARRA ASSOCIA- TION.

By J. Hawke.

A record number of entries and a record number of competitions marks the season's opening in the Illawarra district. Entries are as follows:—1st League, 1st Division, 7; 2nd Division, 7; All-Age, 5; Under 21, 7; Under 18, 11; Under 16, 8; Schools, 14.

In the first week's games Balgownie, minus the services of "Judy" Masters, went down to Coledale, on their home ground, by 3 goals to 1. Moir, an ex-Balmain Gladstone player, at one time of Coledale, played

Cob Jones.

Cob Jones, perhaps one of the greatest Australian-born forwards the game has ever possessed, has definitely retired from the playing field. He will, however, give his services to his club in the capacity of a selector. Cob has been in senior football for about seventeen years, and as inside right to Billy Acres was accounted the best right wing in the State before the war. He was at the top of his form at the same time as many of what we now call our old-timers, namely, Billy Carroll, Carey, Bert Moore, Ern Hughes, and others. Last year Cob represented Illawarra against the New Zealanders, scoring the only two

"Judy" Masters.

That "Judy's" accident at work at the beginning of the year has not affected his scoring powers is proved by his five goals against the Navy. "Judy" is still the "headiest" centre forward in the game.

New South Wales selectors would be well advised to visit the Coast a bit more frequently. Two Australian representatives against thirteen from the Metropolitan area hardly seems fair, considering that the Metropolitan representatives have not scored a victory against the Coast either in Sydney or Illawarra since the war.

WEST WALLSEND v. CESSNOCK AT TRAMWAY GROUND.

Cessnock Defeat Westy 3 Goals to Two.

The game between Westy and Cessnock was an excellent one, and the football shown by both teams both in defence and attack was equal to anything seen in the district. The forwards passed like clockwork, and Cessnock's new men fully justified their inclusion. Thompson, at full back, played a splendid game, ably backed up by his partner, G. Williams. The "Nocks" half back line were their stronghold. Rowe and Durie played a wonderful game. Rowe sent his forwards going times out of number, and kept Muir well guarded. Cessnock's forward line was well balanced, and the inclusion of Cec. Williams has greatly strengthened the Nocks, and on Saturday's form will have to be reckoned with in rep. games.

To get the "hat trick" against Westy is a great performance, and its a question if this has ever been done before against the "Blues." McNaughton played splendid football, and combined with his forwards. E. Williams, right wing, crossed beautiful, and was very fast. See was not a success at centre, but when shifted to outside left played a magnificent game. Slarks played a really good game for his first appearance in senior football, and will improve with a few more games.

Cessnock's display pleased the crowd, and their next appearance at headquarters will be watched with interest.

Westy's team were without their star, W. Maunder, who viewed the game from the grandstand, and his voice could be heard shouting instructions to his team. Westy's defence was sorely tried, and it was the stirring defence of Hen Maunder, backed up by good half backs, that kept the Nocks out. Tommy Coates, at left half, placed well, and in the closing if Di would only drop crossing along the ground and lift the more it would give his forward more chance of scoring. Hayes, who took Maunder's place at centre, was having his first game since last season's Gardiner Cup semi-final against Fernleigh. He got one goal, and worked it well, but soon tired. Brown and Muir on the right wing did not combine, but it may have been that Muir was too well matched.

The early game at the Tramway Ground was between the newly formed Islington and Swansea Third Grades. A good exciting game was put up.

Some splendid passing rushes were indulged in by both teams. From one of these Campbell, outside left for Islington, hit the upright. "Tibby" Horne soon after hit the crossbar with a long shot.

Swansea also attacked and Morgan, Islington goalie, had to fall on the ball, with Swansea players all round, eventually resulting in a free for Islington. When the final went Islington had won two goals to one. Barry scored both goals for Islington, and Doffet scored the only one for Swansea.

Tommy Coates, at left half, placed well, and in the closing stages went to his old possey, outside right, and crossed beautiful. C. Contts, at centre half, seemed lost at the start, but played a splendid game in the second half. In the forwards Sinclair and McLauchlan were the best wing, and if Di would only drop crossing along the ground and lift them more it would give his forwards more chance of scoring. ### KURRI v. WESTON.

Kurri visited Weston, and succeeded in defeating Weston by two goals to one. Foley scored both of Kurri goals, and Wigham was the scorer for Weston. McNab, of Kurri, and McCroary, of Weston, were engaged in fisticuffs, mistaking the playing area for a boxing arena, and were promptly ordered off the field by Referee Smith. They later appeared before Committee, and were severely cautioned.

at the expense of Neath by 3 goals to 1. E. Bush, J. Bush, and A. Cameron, for Adamstown, and Hancock, for Neath, were the scorers.

Drinkwater, of Neath, was injured, and removed to hospital. After treatment he was allowed to go home, and is progressing favourably.

WALLSEND v. NEW LAMBTON.

The surprise of the day, however, was the game put up by New Lambton, who opposed Wallsend on the latter team's home ground. New Lambton's defence being responsible for the keeping intact of their goal right up to within 18 minutes of full time, when New Lambton were leading 2 goals to nil, both being scored by W. Stewart. Wallsend, however, came with a great final rush and succeeded in equalising, the goals coming from Gibson and Urwin. New Lambton have every reason to be satisfied with the taking of at least one point from the Reds.

In the junior games, Adams town defeated Young Wallsend 5—0. Teralba defeated Mayfield 5—2. Barnsby and West Wallsend played a 1-all draw. Killingworth defeated Boolaroo 2—1, and Dudley and Minmi played a draw 1—1.

The Fourth Grade results were:
Adamstown (1) defeated Awaba 3—1.

Jesmond and Boolaroo played a scoreless draw.

New Lambton defeated Broadmeadow 3—1.

Hamilton defeated Bainsby 2—1.

Fernleigh defeated Adamstown (2) 2—0.

Dudley defeated Rhondda 1—0.

Cath. Hill Bay defeated Swans sea 2—1.

SOCCEP'S OUTLOOK.*International Aspect.*ENTHUSIASM PREVAILS.

By J.F.B.

The present Soccer season gives promise of being the most successful in the annals of the pastime. It is nearly 50 years since activities were commenced in New South Wales. Remarkable progress is recorded in all other States of the Commonwealth.

Even a casual observer must already have been struck with the tremendous enthusiasm on the part of officials, players and supporters alike during the opening weeks of the Sydney Soccer season. Never in the history of the game has the round-ball season opened under more auspicious skies. Everywhere one turns club controllers are working in complete harmony with enterprising Association officials in anticipation of the best season ever.

It is pleasant to relate, too, that the ambit of operations of the Soccer code is rapidly spreading to the country centres. Despite the great handicap of extensive mileage between the large towns, many enthusiasts endowed with the gift of organising ability are successfully concentrating their energies in the direction of promoting competition games in districts hitherto unexploited by devotees of the national game of Great Britain.

There are four codes operating in New South Wales. With the exception of Soccer, the other codes mostly confine activities to the Metropolis. Sydney is a rapidly growing city with a big population and diverse tastes. Thus there is plenty of scope for each code to show off their games to the public.

Will Soccer Dominate?

There are many who hold the opinion that Soccer is ultimately destined to be the dominant game in Australia in the not-too-far-distant future. The universality of the Soccer game is, perhaps, one of the most plausible reasons world. It needs but little imagination to visualise the excellent advertisement Australia would receive if the organisation of a team were accomplished. As the Soccer game is played in every State in the Commonwealth at the present time, there should be little difficulty in securing the services of exponents truly representative of Australia.

Of course, it would be suicidal for an Australian team, at the present juncture, to undertake a world tour, as it is readily conceded by competent judges that the standard of our players is not yet parallel with that of either Great Britain or some parts of the Continent.

Adaptable Australians.

The Australian youth has proved that in every branch of sport he is an apt and eager pupil, readily assimilating knowledge imparted by experts. What has been accomplished in other realms of sport can surely be repeated in Soccer. It is by engaging in competition with exponents of a higher calibre that knowledge and proficiency is gained, and this is exemplified in the improvement shown by local players after contact with the New Zealanders, and later the Chinese, in last year's activities.

Proficient Canadians.

There is little doubt that the knowledge of the finer points of the game thus assimilated will be further augmented by the visit of the Canadians. They are reputed craftsmen in the quality of their ground passing and intelligent placing—valuable assets on the hard-playing arenas of Sydney. They rely upon scientific methods to encompass the downfall of the opposition goal rather than on the speed of their forwards. It will be well for the Australian player to focus particular attention on the play of the half-back line, both in attack and defensive measures. The intermediary line is unquestionably the pivot upon which the team operates, and the general absence of co-ordination of effort between the half-backs and forward lines obtrudes itself in Australian football. No doubt the play of the Canadians in this regard will be an object lesson fit of the services of seasoned players as coaches. As the standard advances, so will the attendances continue to eclipse previous records. There is no room for doubt that if Australian players could attain the high standard of their British confreres the Soccer game would easily outdistance all rivals in the race for supremacy. The visit of a British team in 1925 will, no doubt, give the sport a wonderful boost, and prepare the way for the departure of an Australian Soccer Eleven to the old world, there to add further lustre to the prowess of Australia in the arena of field games.

THE SYDNEY CLUB.
Results.

1st Grade (1st division) defeated Balmain Fernleigh by 1 goal to nil. Scorer: J. Burns.

2nd Grade lost to Metters by 2 goals to 6. Scorer: J. Chipling, 2 goals.

All-Age Juniors lost to Kenilworth by 3 goals to 4. Scorers: Boyt 2 goals, Fish 1 goal.

For the first time in the existence of the club, we succeeded in defeating Balmain Fernleigh, and then only by the narrow margin of 1 goal to nil.

As we had never defeated Balmain Fernleigh (not even in a practice game), the fixture last Saturday was looked forward to with more than ordinary interest by the members and supporters of the Sydney Club.

In season 1920 we led a very strong Balmain Fernleigh eleven by 3 goals to nil at half-time.

This looked like a certain win for Sydney, but Fernleigh having the advantage of a strong wind in the second half came with a rush and scored three goals.

Wally Moore found the net on two occasions, and a Sydney back made the tally, 3 all, the game ending in a draw.

Tom Robson, the splendid pivot, was absent from the city on business, and this accounted for him not playing on Saturday last.

Les. Forrester, the centre-half, was also doubtful owing to an injured ankle, and it was not known until late in the week that he would be able to play.

May 10th, 1924.

SENIOR MATCHES FOR TODAY.

Wallsend v Cessnock, at Tramway Ground. Referee, Mr. J. Sneddon.

New Lambton v Adamstown. Referee, Mr. S. Smith.

West Wallsend v Weston. Referee, Mr. W. Stott.

Neath v Mayfield. Referee, Mr. R. Skillings.

Kurri the bye.

In to-day's game Wallsend have moved Craig from centre to outside right, Bungi Gibson taking the centre forward position. The evergreen Yargo, Roy being inside right, all other positions being the same as the previous.

Wallsend are very confident, and expect to be the first team to lower Cessnock's colors. In Cessnock's team the forward line has also been changed from the team that defeated Westy last Saturday. C. Williams replaces See in the centre, R. Lennard replaces Slarkes, and H. Wilson fills the inside right berth. Thompson and See are the emergencies.

West Wallsend for their match against Weston have placed Erickson, centre forward, and T. Coates fills his old possey outside right. Billy Smith playing left half. Belluir and Hayes are not included in the eleven. The remainder of the team being the same as last Saturday.

The early game on the Tramway will be a local Derby between the two Fourth Grade teams, hailing from Teralba and Boolaroo. Both are anxious to win, and a good game should result.

All Juniors will be engaged, and a report of the doings of the clubs will receive full publication.

Referee Results.—Referees please note that results must be forwarded to the Hon. Secretary of the Association promptly. Quite a number delay in forwarding results, which mitigates against the recording of matches and the compiling of the competition table.

Re-grades.

It must be distinctly understood that clubs applying for re-grades must have player's permission. Also a player re-graded for a certain club must play for the club he is re-graded for.

INSURANCE FUND.

Also Jack Parsons, of New Lambton, improving, and his inclusion in New Lambton would be of great assistance to his club.

TRAMWAY SOCCER.

On Tuesday, May 6th, Waverley visited Newcastle and opposed the local Tramway team, at Learmouth Park. Mr. Smith officiated as referee.

Newcastle won the toss, and Waverley kicked off against the wind. Newcastle returned the kick, and at once attacked. A foul was given against Warmsby, and O'Brien placed well into goal, but was cleared at the expense of a corner. Jimmy Ell took the kick, but it went wide.

From a melee in front of Waverley goal, Allen kicked high over the bar. From the kick out Brogden secured, and after a nice solo run he put into the corner of the net. The same player scored again soon afterwards. Waverley now attacked, and Hallam mulled a beautiful chance right in front of goal. Newcastle were next awarded a penalty. Sam See took the kick, but Loughton saved well. Tiger Tom tried a spectacular from 40 yards out, and to everyone's surprise, "Tiger" included, it went into the net. Allan and Brogden scored four for Newcastle, and Miller for Waverley, the final scores being 5 to 1 in favor of Newcastle. Skinner Jack was official linesman.

To Goalkeepers.

You player should not leave your goal unless you feel sure of reaching the ball before the advancing forward, or unless the attacker has broken clean through the defence, and has a clear chance to shoot. Then it may be wise to advance a yard or so instead of so doing you can narrow the angle he has to drive through. Get rid of the ball quickly. Never kick at a ball unless forced to do so. Gather the ball with the hands or in the arms and punt or throw away. Goalkeepers should note that a goal cannot be scored direct from a free kick, unless another player touches the ball given for the following infringement:

a. Player playing the ball a second time before it has been ceive if the organisation of a team were accomplished. As the Soccer game is played in every State in the Commonwealth at the present time, there should be little difficulty in securing the services of exponents truly representative of Australia.

In the local premiership games this season there is evidence that the standard of play is on the improve, due in a measure to several of the clubs having the bene-

There is no room for doubt that if Australian players could attain the high standard of their British confreres the Soccer game would easily outdistance all rivals in the race for supremacy. #### HOW TO PLAY SOCCER.

Different Positions Discussed.

By R. H. Midgley.

To Goalkeepers.

You player should not leave your goal unless you feel sure of reaching the ball before the advancing forward, or unless the attacker has broken clean through the defence, and has a clear chance to shoot. Then it may be wise to advance a yard or so if by so doing you can narrow the angle he has to drive through. Get rid of the ball quickly. Never kick at a ball unless forced to do so. Gather the ball with the hands or in the arms and punt or throw away. Goalkeepers should note that a goal cannot be scored direct from a free kick, unless another player touches the ball, given for the following infringements:

a. Player playing the ball a second time before it has been played by another player after throw in or taking a free kick or a penalty kick.

b. Off-side.

c. Carrying by goalkeeper.

d. Charging goalkeeper at wrong time, the charging being otherwise fair.

a stoppage.

f. Ball not kicked forward from a penalty kick.

g. Improper throw in.

h. Dangerous play (Law 13).

Players should note a goal can be scored direct from any other free kick.

The Full Backs.

The full-backs should have a perfect understanding with their goalkeeper. Often in a tight corner and particularly when facing your own goal, it is judicious to pass back to the goalie who is facing the field of play, and able to clear the ball much easier than it is for the back to turn round and clear when he has probably one or two opponents at his heels. The two backs must also have a complete understanding with each other and combine their movements in much the same way as the forwards have to do. If one back advances to tackle a player his partner should drop back to cover him. It is not always essential for a full-back to volley the ball hard in clearing. An accurate judicious pass to his half-back will often be to greater advantage to his side. When a long clearance is made it is usually more good luck than judgment if the ball reaches one of your own team.

Have an understanding with your wing half-back as to which man he is to tackle, the inside or outside forward. I advocate the half-back taking the wing man, and the full-back the inside forward, but other men advocate vice-versa, but whichever it is have an understanding and stick to it.

SOUTH SYDNEY v. ALEXANDRIA.

A very interesting game was played on Waterloo Oval on Saturday between the above clubs. During the early stages the forwards of both sides played pretty football by keeping the ball on the turf and passing neatly and with accuracy to each other. In the second half Alexandria tried hard to get the winning goal, and it was only by the good defence and clever goal-keeping of G. Allison that they did not achieve their object. The game ended in a draw—1 all.

Protestant Churches Association

COMMENTS.

The Protestant Churches' Soccer Football Association joins with the world of sport in general in extending to the visiting Canadians the most cordial of Australian welcomes.

Duprez, of Alex. Mission A, was easily the star player of the day, and well-nigh broke the hearts of Ryde Meth. He was ably supported by Roberts and Hodgson. If Moore had better support Ryde Meth. would not fare nearly so badly. Hurlstone Pk. Congs. and St. Paul's provided an interesting game, Neilson netting the only goal. St. Clement's and Lakemba Congs. A both had easy victories. Holy Trinity v. Dul. Hill Bapt. ended with honors even. Unless Trinity take a pull they will be visiting M.C. "en bloc" before long. Enmore Tabs. woke up with a start to the sorrow of M'kville Presb. The game was fairly even.

Marsden was once again the shining light of Newtown Congs. A, and was largely responsible for Botany Meth. A's downfall. A good exhibition of the game was given the better team on the day getting home. Though only fielding nine men, L'hardt Meth. were able to account for their Presb. contemporaries by 3-1. Hyde, Rabey, Burgess, and Kelly were in good form. R. Thomas put in some good work for All Saints last week. Kellich and Powell played well for Austen F.C. Kellich should be playing in a higher grade than he is. It is a wonder that Management permitted him to play second grade. All Soul's played with stiff luck and went under to Croydon Congs. A. 2-1.

Havill and Linsley were easily the pick of the field. Redfern also played a fair game.

Together with the Soccer world in general, we wish to convey our heartfelt sympathy to the President of the P.C.S.F. Association, Rev. A.

Simpson was mainly responsible for St. Luke's big win over Alex. Mission B 6-1. When St. Columbs learn to shoot straight they may do better. Last week they had the better of game, yet Newtown Congs. B came out on top 2-1. St. Silas and St. Stephen's Newtown put up a good clean game, in which the latter were lucky to win 1-0. Evans, Brown, Lee and Pepper were in the lime-light. St. Thomas had a real victory at last! However, if they do not get in to proper uniform they will find the fines a bit tiresome. T. Baynon was the pick of the field. Jordan played a good defensive game for St. Bede's, who hit Aidan's B 2-0. Dru. Bapt. Juniors piled up a debt of 16/6 against themselves by forfeiting to Canterbury Meth. Though improving out of sight, Annandale Meth. were too weak for Lakemba Congs. B 1-3. St. John's Glebe are still going great guns and have added another scalp to their belt. Secretary Sing played good football. After an evenly contested match Croydon Congs. B scored the only goal in match against Hurlstone Park Meth. Delprado and Riggs were the pick of the field.

St. George Branch.

This branch opened rather auspiciously with two forfeits. However, the season is young yet.

Goulburn.

The representative match will take place to-day on Leichhardt Oval at 3.15 p.m. The team selected will need to go all out to win. Perhaps Park is a better goalie than Meredith, but still the selectors thought otherwise. Stanhope, of course, stands alone while Roberts, Havill and Marsden have proved their worth. The others are more or less unknown quantities, and it will not be until to-night that we will be able to question the selectors' wisdom.

P.C.R.A.

Mr. W. B. Thomas (Nanna) made a very successful debut last week. His favorite song is "Oh where are my Sister's Stockings."

To-day the popular ex Hon. Secretary of All Soul's will commence his duties as a knight of the whistle by acting as referee at Leichhardt Flat. The Secretary would remind members of the meeting to be held at 30 Rawson Chambers on Wednesday next, at 8 p.m.

FIXTURES FOR SATURDAY, 17th MAY, 1924.

First Grade.

THE SCOTS AND BALL CONTROL.

By Andrew Cunningham
(Rangers and Scottish International Forward).

That there are very real differences between the football played in Scotland and in England is generally accepted as a fact. I have played against English players, and I have chatted with scores of footballers who have had long experience of the game in both countries. On one point there is quite striking agreement: that the game as played in England is much faster than the game as played by the average first-class club in Scotland.

If it would serve any useful purpose I could give you quite a long list of players of Scottish birth who have learnt about the pace of English football to their sorrow. There are plenty of big men who have made big reputations north of the border, and to obtain their services English clubs have paid big fees.

But when they have journeyed south they have been a disappointment both to themselves and to the supporters of the clubs which they have gone to serve. And in nearly every case the root cause of the disappointment has been this: the men have failed to impart into their play that necessary bit of pace which is so essential to success in English football.

Every Scottish player going south feels this necessity for doing things much quicker. If the men have it in them to increase their pace, then they will probably prove a big success. If they can't work up the speed stuff, they will probably come back home, sadder and wiser men.

THE SOCCER NEWS.

I have not said that the ideal footballer is the one who has had experience in both countries. I believe that the early Scottish training is the best, followed by a spell in England to work up the speed.

I have no space to go into details as to the why and the wherefore of the difference between the average English footballer and the average Scottish player. Obviously, it must be largely a matter of early training. Indeed, I do not think it is going too far to say that it is wholly a question of how the young player, new to big football, is treated by those whose business it is to guide his footsteps along the path to football success.

Moreover, it is in regard to the matter of early training that I specially wish to write just now because I have a feeling that this is a very real danger at the m-

Simpson was mainly responsible for St. Luke's big win over Alex. Mission B 6-1. When St. Columbs learn to shoot straight they may do better. Last week they had the better of game, yet Newtown Congs. B came out on top 2-1. St. Silas and St. Stephen's Newtown put up a good clean game, in which the latter were lucky to win 1-0. Evans, Brown, Lee and Pepper were in the lime-light. St. Thomas had a real victory at last! However, if they do not get in to proper uniform they will find the fines a bit tiresome. T. Baynon was the pick of the field. Jordan played a good defensive game for St. Bede's, who hit Aidan's B 2-0. Drum. Bapt. Juniors piled up a debt of 16/6 against themselves by forfeiting to Canterbury Meth. Though improving out of sight, Annandale Meth. were too weak for Lakemba Congs. B 1-3. St. John's Glebe are still going great guns and have added another scalp to their belt. Secretary Sing played good football. After an evenly contested match Croydon Congs. B scored the only goal in match against Hurlstone Park Meth. Delprado and Riggs were the pick of the field.

St. George Branch.

This branch opened rather auspiciously with two forfeits. However, the season is young yet.

Goulburn.

The representative match will take place to-day on Leichhardt Oval at 3.15 p.m. The team selected will need to go all out to win. Perhaps Park is a better goalie than Meredith, but still the selectors thought otherwise. Stanhope, of course, stands alone while Roberts, Havill and Marsden have proved their worth. The others are more or less unknown quantities, and it will not be until to-night that we will be able to question the selectors' wisdom.

THE SCOTS AND BALL CONTROL.

By Andrew Cunningham
(Rangers and Scottish Interna-tional Forward).

That there are very real differences between the football played in Scotland and in England is generally accepted as a fact. I have played against English players, and I have chatted with scores of footballers who have had long experience of the game in both countries. On one point there is quite striking agreement: that the game as played in England is much faster than the game as played by the average first-class club in Scotland.

If it would serve any useful purpose I could give you quite a long list of players of Scottish birth who have learnt about the pace of English football to their sorrow. There are plenty of big men who have made big reputations north of the border, and to obtain their services English clubs have paid big fees.

But when they have journeyed south they have been a disappointment both to themselves and to the supporters of the clubs which they have gone to serve. And in nearly every case the root cause of the disappointment has been this: the men have failed to impart into their play that necessary bit of pace which is so essential to success in English football.

Every Scottish player going south feels this necessity for doing things much quicker. If the men have it in them to increase their pace, then they will probably prove a big success. If they can't work up the speed stuff, they will probably come back home, sadder and wiser men.

Making the Ideal Player.

Following on the foregoing, and digressing for one moment, may I just add that in my opinion the man who comes nearest to being the ideal footballer is the fellow who has learnt the game in Scotland, and has been later worked up to the English pace. Here, however, I want you to follow my meaning clearly.

training at the best, for a spell in England to work up the speed.

I have no space to go into details as to the why and the wherefore of the difference between the average English footballer and the average Scottish player. Obviously, it must be largely a matter of early training. Indeed, I do not think it is going too far to say that it is wholly a question of how the young player, new to big football, is treated by those whose business it is to guide his footsteps along the path to football success.

Moreover, it is in regard to this matter of early training that I specially wish to write just now, because I have a feeling that there is a very real danger at the moment of football was ability to control the ball. "When you have learnt to control the ball, you can then learn to do anything else which may be necessary," has been a sort of standing motto with Scottish trainers and coaches.

The result of years of following such methods has been the production, so far as Scotland is concerned, of a race of very real footballers who have appreciated the fact that the game should be played on the turf, and not in the air, and that the short, sharp pass from man to man can be a very effective way of getting within shooting range.

I think the Scottish game has been the scientific game; and the fact that at the same time it has been a paying game is proved by the record of the International matches played between Scotland and England.

Science at a Discount.

Personally, I do not want to see the day arrive when it can truthfully be said that the main idea behind Scottish first-class football is to kick the ball hard and run after it at top speed. Yet I have many friends in England who declare that this is the basis of the game as played by a proportion of the big clubs.

Science is at a discount, and speed is the all-important factor, apparently. And my fear at the moment is that there is a very real danger of the English methods being copied by the Scottish clubs.

Thinking it over, however, I am not so sure that this is not even a more natural development on recent happenings rather than a danger. The number of football clubs aspiring to first class has recently been increased in Scotland. We have extended the divisions of the Scottish League.

ment of the Scottish clubs inclining towards the English method. Or perhaps it would be more correct to say that modern conditions make the temptation to copy English methods pretty strong.

The True Basis of the Game.

It may be that, being a Scot, I am just all Scotch, and hopelessly prejudiced. But it has always seemed to me that the Scottish way of playing the game approached much more nearly to the idea of what the game should be than the English way.

In doing this sort of thing, it is obvious that you also increase the demand for the young and raw material. And the danger, as I see it, is that in the desperate hunt to find a supply of footballers to keep up the demand, we in Scotland may be tempted to depart from our ordinary methods of producing real footballers.

EASTERN SUBURBS.

The above club is making a praiseworthy attempt to gain re-admission to First Grade next season. In the first two games the players have shown fine form in defeating North Sydney and Burns' Anniversary so decisively by 4—0 and 4—1 respectively and it is to be hoped the same good play will be in evidence against all opponents. Compared with last year, Easts are practically a new team, and the infusion of the new blood is apparently doing good. However, like all other clubs, there is one or two weak spots, which no doubt will be strengthened as soon as possible, and when this is done Eastern Suburbs should experience no difficulty in heading their division for the current season.

The club's new ground on Centennial Park is a good one, and with attention will be made much better. For the benefit of those who wish to follow the club's

GLADESVILLE.

The First and Second teams of this club fulfilled the anticipations of those connected last Saturday when they defeated Pyrmont Rangers and Lilyfield Rangers respectively.

The game against Pyrmont Rangers, ably conducted by Mr. E. Lukeman, was marked throughout by really clever football by H. Robertson, and excellent defensive work by Maizley, Pont and J. Lyon; Osborne and Timms playing well for Rangers.

The form of the Gladesville players showed a marked improvement on that of the previous week, several alterations in positions being made in the meantime by the club selectors.

This improvement should be more pronounced as the season progresses, facilities having been offered and arrangements made to enable strict and regular training to be carried out locally.

Good football was also witnessed at the Sunlight Sports Ground, but Gladesville's second team proved superior in team work, and

PRIMROSE PARK.

Owing mainly to the inclement weather of last Saturday, which was a very dull day from the spectators' point of view, the usual patronage suffered.

The late fixture on No 1 Ground was between Marrickville Avoca and Pyrmont Refinery, with the Avoca's always having the upper hand.

The scores were 6 to 1 in their favor.

Platt has again donned the jersey for Avoca's, and played as pivot, and signalled his return to their ranks by securing the first goal of the day.

Pyrmont's only goal came from a solo effort by the inside right; he was always dangerous with the ball, but got no support.

Avoca's tally would have been considerably greater only for the splendid display put up by Pyrmont's Custodian, who repeatedly repelled attempts to score; in one instance taking the ball off the toes of one of the opposing forwards when a score looked certain.

The early fixture was between St. Peter's and Leichhardt Jnr. in the B Grade, and after a poor display the former won by 2—0.

A Grade.

Lilyfield and Annandale Altona met at No. 1 Canterbury, and after a very strenuous game the former team won by 2 goals to 1. Lilyfield attacked right from the start, and in the first five minutes netted a good goal. Annandale responded, but were kept out by Robinson and Urquhart, who played a good defensive game; Altona eventually equalised before half-time. The second half contained many dull periods of play, the forwards of both sides being unable to break through the back division.

Morrow and Archer were a tower of strength to Altona; it was just on full time that S. McCarthy succeeded in breaking through and beating Cartwright in the backs, and are not supported by their half line, consequently the forwards were not worked sufficiently to net goals.

Glebe Arcadia defeated Sagent's on No. 2, by 4 to 1. Sagent's are improving and will be a hard proposition later on in the season.

Kenilworth, another new team defeated a strong Sydney Club by 4 to 3, after a very exciting game in which the scores see-sawed about till they were 3 each. Kenilworth netted the winning goal.

B Grade.

Sunlight beat Bondi Beach A team by 5 to 3, while the latter's B team friends were defeated by Lilyfield by 3—1.

Sunlight and Lilyfield meet next Saturday, and a good game should result. Lilyfield readjusted their defence, after the heavy defeat the previous week, and now appear to be settled down.

C Grade Division 1.

Lilyfield and Annandale provided the early fixture on No. 1 Canterbury, and a great game resulted in a 1 all draw. Both teams were evenly matched, but the former team should have won the game. The Annandale goalkeeper played a brilliant game, and saved a certain defeat. The back division of both sides were very strong, and no mistakes were made.

In Division 2, Warren Avoca and Warren Iona fought out a very strenuous contest, the result being a 1 all draw. As these teams are bitter rivals in the competition, a keen game was expected, and the result is a very fair verdict.

Abbreviated Laws of the Game

Eleven players form a team. For positions see team list.

HANDLING THE BALL.—The goalkeepers only may play the ball with their hands, and they only within the penalty area. INTENTIONAL handling only is penalised by a free kick to the opposite side, opponents keeping back ten yards.

OFF-SIDE.—This is the hardest rule of all. A player cannot be off-side in his own half of the field of play, nor when the ball is last played by an opponent, nor if he is behind the ball when it is last played. He cannot be off-side when a corner kick or throw-in is taken, this protection ceasing when the ball is again played by one of his own side. With these general exceptions a PLAYER MUST HAVE AT LEAST THREE OF HIS OPPONENTS NEARER THEIR OWN GOAL LINE. To be penalised a player must be playing the ball or interfering with the play.

THE VALUE OF PRACTICE.

By J. McDougall.

Any healthy well-built young man can kick a football about a field, but there is a right and a wrong way of doing everything, and experience teaches the correct means of obtaining the best results.

Collectively, footballers are not the masters of a football that they ought to be. Combination enters largely into football, certainly, but the player who cannot out-maneuvre his opponent with the ball and pass accurately sooner or later becomes a weak link in the chain.

No player can become proficient without training, and no matter what position the player occupies the best way of doing everything is by systematic practice—shooting, passing, dribbling, and heading. This is the great thing in Soccer—practice with the ball—and trainers, coaches, and other club officials should encourage it for without it success is very

FREE KICK.—A free kick is awarded for handling the ball, tripping, kicking, jumping at, holding, pushing, or illegally charging an opponent or dangerous play.

PENALTY KICK.—This award for the following infringements within the "penalty" area (18 yards mark): Tripping, kicking, striking, jumping at an opponent, handling the ball, holding, pushing, or illegally charging an opponent. All players except the player taking the kick and the opponents' goal-keeper must keep outside the penalty area. The kick is taken from a mark 12 yards from the goal line.

GENERAL.—Intentional infringements only are penalised, and generally speaking the "advantage" rule is followed.

Charging is permissible, but must not be violent or dangerous.

training only as a matter of form, and is not putting his heart and soul into the game. Men of this description, indifferent or lacking in ambition, are of no consequence and never will be.

All players should first of all be clean and honest, and almost on a par with that it is necessary to have complete control of the ball, whether in shooting, passing etc. Some men may be undesirable, as they are unable to master either themselves or the ball. There should be no place for them on the field of play. There are others with a sense of fair and good play, and they improve with practice in the development of their ability and in their sporting outlook.

Spectators should encourage the ball player, and by doing so will allow each player to play his own game as an individual, and also for the benefit of his team, as he realises that he is one of a combination.

GOALIES.

By "Penalty King."

Charging behind is illegal unless an opponent is obstructing, but it must under no circumstance be violent or dangerous.

GOAL.—A goal is scored when the ball has passed between the goal posts, under the bar, and completely over the goal line.

CORNER KICK.—If the ball is played behind by one of the defending side, an opponent shall kick it from within one yard of the corner flag.

THROW-IN.—The ball is out of play when it has passed completely over the touch line. The throw-in is taken by an opponent, who must stand with part of both feet on the line and throw the ball with both hands over his head.

DURATION OF GAME.—Except when otherwise arranged, the duration of a game shall be two spells of 45 minutes.

I became a goalkeeper more or less by accident. Centre-half was my recognised position in the junior Scottish team with which I was associated, until one day our regular goalkeeper was unable to turn out, and I was called on to fill the vacancy. I took to the position so much I would play nowhere else afterwards.

In my opinion the greatest essential for a success as a goalie is a cool head and a safe pair of hands. More than anyone else in the team he must be safe. He must resist the temptation to be showy, and if he is not feeling perfectly fit, he owes it to his club to say so.

Always endeavour to meet the ball with the whole body.

Sometimes I know it is impossible to do this. But practise it whenever you can, and you will save many shots that will otherwise beat you. More than once I had the experience of the ball slipping through my fingers and being stopped by other parts of the body.

Some goalkeepers are ready to take big risks; I prefer to err on

The St. George Ass.

Keen Competition.

The St. George Soccer Football Association concluded its second round last Saturday.

The chief feature of this round was the defeat of Arncliffe by Kogarah at Arncliffe Park, by 2 goals to 1.

Kogarah now heads the League table, and have a goal average of 14 to 3. St. George is second; both have not suffered a defeat.

These two teams will be the star fixture on the St. George Sports Ground No. 1 to-day, and also a great attraction will be on No. 2 Ground at the St. George Sports Ground. Arncliffe will meet Penshurst United, and a record crowd is expected. It is hard to predict the winners, but Kogarah and Arncliffe should just win.

Last Saturday's results:

All-Age:—Rockdale 2, Lancashire 1, St. George 3, Brighton 1, Cronulla 4, Penshurst 0, Kogarah 2, Arncliffe 1, Penshurst United 3, Hurstville 0.

A Grade:—Arncliffe 1, Rovers 0, Tempe Park Rangers 3, Lancashire 1, Kogarah 8, Rockdale 1.

C Grade:—Banksia 2, Kogarah 2, St. George 6, Rockdale Diamond 0.

The following are the competition matches for to-morrow:

All-Age:—Rockdale v Brighton, Moorefield, 3.15; Lancashire v Cronulla, Cronulla, 3.15; St. George v Kogarah, St. George Sports Ground No. 1, 3.15; Arncliffe v Penshurst United, St. George Sports Ground No. 2, 3.15; Penshurst v Hurstville, Dumbleton, 3.15.

A Grade:—Rovers v Lancashire, Sports Ground No. 2, 1.45; Arncliffe v Cronulla, Cook Park, 3.15; Tempe Iona v Kogarah, No. 1 Sports Ground, 1.45; Brighton v Rockdale, Moorefield, 1.45; Tempe Rangers the bye.

C Grade:—St. George v Arncliffe, Cook Park, 1.45; Kogarah v Rockdale deferred.

extremely fortunate in securing the odd goal. From the kick-off both played good football, the defence upon each team too good for the attack. George was the first to score, Hayes, and Chapman, of Carrington, soon equalised, the score half time was one goal each.

In the second half the game was hotly contested. Both teams played with determination for a winning goal.

St. George was successful, was after a combined forward movement that Weeks secured the ball, and when close to the line, with a hefty kick the ball travelled high up into the corner of the net, and St. George won their second first grade match 2 goals to 1. For St. George Chiswell and J. Murray were the pick of the defence, and Weeks and Hayes in the attack. Carrington played a splendid game Canterbury.

Owing to the arrival of Canadians, Senior Football is suspended. The district team not be in action until May 24.

layers form a team. For positions see

FREE KICK.—A free kick is awarded for handling the ball, tripping, kicking, jumping at, holding, pushing, or illegally charging an opponent or dangerous play.

PENALTY KICK.—This award for the following infringements within the "penalty" area (18 yards mark): Tripping, kicking, striking, jumping at an opponent, handling the ball, holding, pushing, or illegally charging an opponent. All players except the player taking the kick and the opponents' goal-keeper must keep outside the penalty area. The kick is taken from a mark 12 yards from the goal line.

GENERAL.—Intentional infringements only are penalised, and generally speaking the "advantage" rule is followed.

Charging is permissible, but must not be violent or dangerous.

training only as a matter of form, and is not putting his heart and soul into the game. Men of this description, indifferent or lacking in ambition, are of no consequence and never will be.

All players should first of all be clean and honest, and almost on a par with that it is necessary to have complete control of the ball, whether in shooting, passing etc. Some men may be undesirable, as they are unable to master either themselves or the ball. There should be no place for them on the field of play. There are others with a sense of fair and good play, and they improve with practice in the development of their ability and in their sporting outlook.

Spectators should encourage the ball player, and by doing so will allow each player to play his own game as an individual, and also for the benefit of his team, as he realises that he is one of a combination.

GOALIES.

By "Penalty King."

Football has always appealed to me. As a youth, I worked in a coalpit, but practically all my leisure time was devoted to playing the game. And it was ever my ambition to become a first-class player.

Charging behind is illegal unless an opponent is obstructing, but it must under no circumstance be violent or dangerous.

GOAL.—A goal is scored when the ball has passed between the goal posts, under the bar, and completely over the goal line.

CORNER KICK.—If the ball is played behind by one of the defending side, an opponent shall kick it from within one yard of the corner flag.

THROW-IN.—The ball is out of play when it has passed completely over the touch line. The throw-in is taken by an opponent, who must stand with part of both feet on the line and throw the ball with both hands over his head.

DURATION OF GAME.—Except when otherwise arranged, the duration of a game shall be two spells of 45 minutes.

I became a goalkeeper more or less by accident. Centre-half was my recognised position in the junior Scottish team with which I was associated, until one day our regular goalkeeper was unable to turn out, and I was called on to fill the vacancy. I took to the position so much I would play nowhere else afterwards.

In my opinion the greatest essential for a success as a goalie is a cool head and a safe pair of hands. More than anyone else in the team he must be safe. He must resist the temptation to be showy, and if he is not feeling perfectly fit, he owes it to his club to say so.

Always endeavour to meet the ball with the whole body.

Sometimes I know it is impossible to do this. But practise it whenever you can, and you will save many shots that will otherwise beat you. More than once I had the experience of the ball slipping through my fingers and being stopped by other parts of the body.

Some goalkeepers are ready to take big risks; I prefer to err on the side of caution. Nor do I regard the goalie as entirely a defensive player. He should always note the position of the field before he kicks a ball, and do his best to land it amongst his own forwards.

Keen Competition.

The St. George Soccer Football Association concluded its second round last Saturday.

The chief feature of this round was the defeat of Arncliffe by Kogarah at Arncliffe Park, by 2 goals to 1.

Kogarah now heads the League table, and have a goal average of 14 to 3. St. George is second; both have not suffered a defeat.

These two teams will be the star fixture on the St. George Sports Ground No. 1 to-day, and also a great attraction will be on No. 2 Ground at the St. George Sports Ground. Arncliffe will meet Penshurst United, and a record crowd is expected. It is hard to predict the winners, but Kogarah and Arncliffe should just win.

Last Saturday's results:

All-Age:—Rockdale 2, Lancashire 1, St. George 3, Brighton 1, Cronulla 4, Penshurst 0, Kogarah 2, Arncliffe 1, Penshurst United 8, Hurstville 0.

A Grade:—Arncliffe 1, Rovers 0, Tempe Park Rangers 3, Lancashire 1, Kogarah 8, Rockdale 1.

C Grade:—Banksia 2, Kogarah 2, St. George 6, Rockdale Diamond 0.

The following are the competition matches for to-morrow:

All-Age:—Rockdale v Brighton, Moorefield, 3.15; Lancashire v Cronulla, Cronulla, 3.15; St. George v Kogarah, St. George Sports Ground No. 1, 3.15; Arncliffe v Penshurst United, St. George Sports Ground No. 2, 3.15; Penshurst v Hurstville, Dumbleton, 3.15.

A Grade:—Rovers v Lancashire, Sports Ground No. 2, 1.45; Arncliffe v Cronulla, Cook Park, 3.15; Tempe Iona v Kogarah, No. 1 Sports Ground, 1.45; Brighton v Rockdale, Moorefield, 1.45; Tempe Rangers the bye.

C Grade:—St. George v Arncliffe, Cook Park, 1.45; Kogarah v Rockdale deferred.

DISTRICT CLUB'S SUCCESS.

St. George District team was home to Canterbury at the St. George Sports Ground on Saturday, and as expected a fast and exciting game was played throughout. The St. George players were

RYDE ASSOCIATION.

The above Association opened its first season on Saturday last. Eight matches were staged, as will be seen from the results several teams have not yet found their feet. The games resulted as follows:

A Grade.
Concord A 8, Roseville 0.
Hornsby 6, West Ryde 1.
Carlingford 4, Ryde 0.
Gladesville 3, Concord B 2.

C Grade.
Ryde 5, Drummoyne 1.
West Ryde 2, Hornsby 0.
Gladesville a bye.

Hornsby's runaway victory over West Ryde occasioned some surprise, for although Hornsby are game, those in the know expected a hard fight on West Ryde's part after their fine showing last year in the Granville competition. No doubt West's will feel better when they have put in a few week's training.

The Merry Farmers from Carlingford made merry at Ryde's expense. Ryde, however, though beaten, were not outclassed. A few games together should make a big improvement.

Tom Glen, Ryde's left back, was always a thorn in the side of the Farmers.

Concord A's were rather hard on Roseville. Cheer up, Roseville, you have good material, and will doubtless make your weight felt when you become better acquainted with the game.

Gladesville did well to beat Concord B's. The boys from the 'Ville are fine sports; they originally entered as an under 18 team, but on finding that there were insufficient entries transferred to the A Grade.

In the C Grade the Ryde and West Ryde teams made up for shortcomings of their elder brothers. There should be a great game when these two meet.

The Association was unfortunately compelled to abandon the B Grade competition, as there were only three entries. Gladesville, as mentioned above, went into A Grade. Carlingford have decided to enter the Granville competition. Concord-Cabarita have asked to be placed in C Grade. No decision has yet been arrived at, but there should be no difficulty, as they have only three players who are over 16.

NORTH'S IMPROVEMENT.

The reshuffling of the North Sydney Soccer Club for the match against Callan Park proved a success. Smith moved from inside right to centre half, Rowman centre forward, Carson inside left, and Edwards inside right, worked well together, with the result that the weakest line of the team (the forward line) was greatly strengthened.

With a little more combination and training, North Sydney should go ahead.

TWO INTERNATIONALS.

Canterbury have two internationals in their team this season. Mr. W. H. Heaney, "the Milner of the South," and Mr. J. K. Lang, Instructor and Adviser, Mr. C. E. Evans, Committee, Junior International of 1921. After opening shakily in the match Canterbury v St. George, he gave a masterly exhibition in the second half. Although on the small side he manages to reach the high shots well, and his diving was a revelation. McLaren, who plays right half, played schoolboy international for Scotland against England in 1921, and is only just turned sixteen. At home he always played full back, but the Bury's prefer him at right half. With a little more experience of local conditions this boy is going to make a name for himself. He is a great tackler, has wonderful control over the ball, and feeds his forwards like a veteran, swinging the ball about with great judgment. The Bury's opening has not been auspicious, but when the new men get settled down and an outside left obtained, they will more than hold their own with the best of 'em.

A TEAM AT GRIFFITH.

From the "Area News."

These clippings sent from Griffith indicate that the game is making progress in the country.

The Soccer boom continues, the meeting held at Messrs. Gambell Bros., Yambil Street, to form a club at Griffith, being most enthusiastic. The new club started well, seventeen members enrolled at the meeting and there is every prospect of at least 30 playing members coming along.

Subscription was fixed at 5/- and attractive colors, two blues, quartered, were chosen. The matter of a playing field was considered, and an effort will be made to secure the oval next the barracks. The election of officers resulted as follows:—Patron, Mr. Ferguson; President, Mr. W. Blackwood; Vice-Presidents, Dr. A. E. Burrell, Messrs. J. P. Fallon, L. Chettle, J. Wood, C. Mayes, A. Gambell; Secretary, Mr. L. Ray; Assistant Secretary, Mr. A. Blackwood; Treasurer, Mr. J. K. Lang; Instructor and Adviser, Mr. C. E. Evans; Committee,

May 10th, 1924.

The club should do well if enthusiasm and earnestness counts. The boys are fortunate in having the services of Mr. Evans as coach—he knows the game thoroughly, and has the knack of imparting his knowledge.

PRACTICE GAME AT HANWOOD

The Hanwood Soccer team held their first practice game on Sunday, the lads turning out in great style—20 taking part in the game—and showing surprisingly good form for a first knock. Busby, at goal, was the bright particular star, while Cliff and Jackson, centre forward and right wing respectively, showed great promise. A good game ended in a draw—3 all.

Soccer players should lose no time in getting in touch with local teams. Messrs. A. Blackwood or L. Ray will give full information, etc., in regard to Griffith Club, and Mr. A. Hollinsworth, Secretary of Hanwood Club, will do likewise in regard to that side.

A general practice game will be held on the Hanwood Oval on Sunday next, between members of the Griffith and Hanwood Clubs. A full muster of intending members of both teams is expected, when two trial games will be staged.
